

Bilateral two-limb unit — top-down view (E1, E3) limbs swing horizontally in place; base pinned to the world; an object in each tip's reach gravity is $\perp$ to the page: it loads the structure but not the vertical-axis hinge — isolating object resistance.